12 – 15 May 2016

REAL ESTATE LAW

PROGRAMME

Session:

CHAired BY NIELS ERIKSEN

The main aim of the Group is to provide members with specific real estate law advice, assistance and representation when required in relation to matters falling out of their own jurisdiction. It is also anticipated that the Group aims to provide advice to business clients on how to avoid problems by investing in foreign countries.

The group will discuss how and when a real estate lawyer could and should be involved in a real estate transaction and how involved lawyers can deal with the abovementioned issues, domestic as well as in the foreign country.
